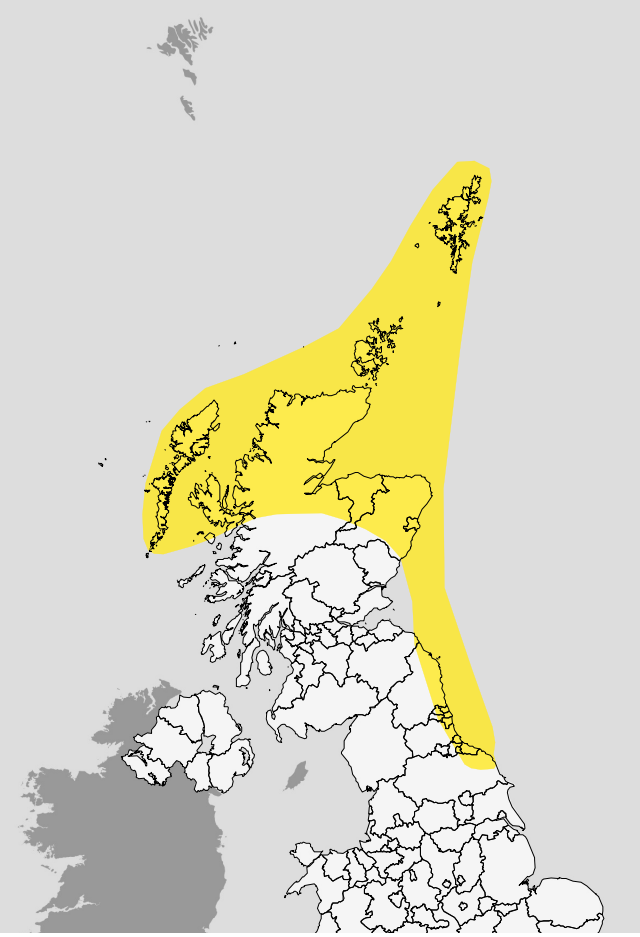
Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
00:00 Tue 13 Dec 2022 and
23:59 Thu 15 Dec 2022



Snow showers and icy surfaces will bring some travel disruption.

What to expect

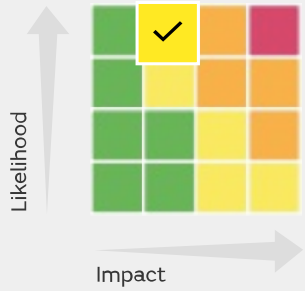
- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Wintry showers will affect many areas of northern Scotland and parts of northeast England, though tending to become fewer in number from later on Thursday. A few centimetres of snow are likely to accumulate at low levels with the potential for as much as 15-20 cm over higher ground. In addition, ice is likely to form on untreated surfaces, mainly where some of the showers fall as sleet close to coasts.

Reason for update

The likelihood of impacts has been increased, whilst the cessation time has been curtailed at the end of Thursday.



High likelihood of low impacts
